ARTICLE V. PROGRESS PAYMENT

The owner shall pay the contractor the contract price based on the percentage of actual work accomplishments as specified in buildings to be periodically submitted by the contractor to the owner and in accordance with the general conditions of the contract. Such request for payment shall be verified and certified by the monitoring group.

ARTICLE VI. RETENTION MONEY

Progress payments are subject to retention of ten percent (10%) referred to as "RETENTION MONEY". Such retention shall be based on the total amount due to the contractor prior to any deductions and shall be retained from every progress payment until fifty percent (50%) of the value of works, as determined by the owner, are completed. If, after fifty percent (50%) completion, the work is satisfactorily done and on schedule, no additional retention shall be made, otherwise, ten percent (10%) retention shall be imposed.

The total "RETENTION MONEY" shall be due for release upon final acceptance of the project. However, the owner may upon the request of the contractor, release the retention money after fifty percent (50%) of the value of works has been completed, provided that the contractor shall post a surety bond callable on demand equivalent in the amount to the retention money released and subject to the conditions that the owner shall continue to subject succeeding progress payments on the remaining balance of work to a five percent (5%) retention, provided that the works are satisfactorily done and on schedule.

ARTICLE VII. LIQUIDATED DAMAGES

It is understood and agreed that time is of the essence of this contract, and in the event that the contractor refuses to or fails to complete the work within the time herein above specified within the validity of extension that maybe granted by the owner, if any, the contractor shall pay to the owner the liquidated damages herein set forth, in which case, the contractor and his sureties shall jointly and severally be liable to the owner for said liquidated damages for each calendar day of delay in the completion of the work. The owner is hereby authorized to deduct the amount of liquidated damages from any amount due or which may hereinafter become due to the contractor as his fee under this contract, or to collect or charge thereafter such liquidated damages from the performance bond filed by the contractor or to collect such liquidated damages from the amount due to the contractor under this contract and their performance bond filed by the contractor whichever is more convenient and expeditious to the owner, provided, however that no liquidated or any excess cost shall be charged when the delay in completion of the work is due to unforceable causes beyond control and without the fault or negligence of the owner, or force majeure.

In case the contractor refuses or fails to satisfactorily complete the work within the specified contract time, plus any time extension duly granted and is hereby in default under the contract, the contractor shall pay the owner for liquidated damages, and not by way of penalty, an amount shall be equal to one-tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the cost of the unperformed portion for every day of delay until the work is completed and accepted or taken over by the owner.

ARTICLE VIII. OPTION TO COMPLETE OR TERMINATE CONTRACT

In case the contractor, at any time during the progress of the work should fail, refuse or neglect to supply the needed materials, equipment or workmen or should abandon the contract, the owner may provide materials, equipment and workers after giving the contractor ten (10) days written notice, and may proceed with the work in accordance with the progress of work, the amount spent which will be determined and validated by the monitoring group. However, this stipulation shall not relatively or in any case diminish the responsibility of the contractor under this agreement.

Either party may terminate this contract after ten (10) days written notice to the other, if it is found that causes beyond the control of either the owner or the contractor make it impossible for either to continue.

It is the agreement of the parties that there will be no escalation of payment clause in the life of the contract, but if the circumstances warrant it, the rights of either party under the law may be invoked in this regard.

The exercise by the owner of its rights under this Article shall not prejudice, impair, or diminish whatsoever rights or remedies the owner may have against the contractor under this contract or existing laws.

ARTICLE IX. PERFORMANCE BOND OF THE CONTRACTOR

The contractor upon receipt of the Notice of Award shall furnish the owner a performance bond in the form of cash, manager's check, cashier's irrevocable letter of credit, surety bond, or a combination thereof to be issued by a bank acceptable to the owner, based on the Implementing Rules and regulations for government infrastructure projects pursuant to the revised R.A. No. 9184, for the faithful performance of its work.

The performance bond shall only be released by the owner upon final completion of the work, provided, that the contractor has submitted to the owner the guarantee bond. The performance bond shall be increased by supplementary bonds for the cost of additional / extra work should any be authorized by the owner.

ARTICLE X. CONTRACTOR'S LIABILITY

The contractor shall bear all losses and damages arising out or in connection with any accident which may happen to any person or persons by or on account of the prosecution of the works covered by this contract, which responsibility shall continue until the final acceptance of the project by the owner.

In this connection, the contractor shall provide all the necessary safeguards, warning signs, and all safety precautions for all workers and third parties during the progress of the work.

ARTICLE XI. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS, ORDINANCES, ETC.

The contractor shall comply with laws, ordinances and regulations of both national and local government applicable to or binding upon the parties hereto, the work covered by the contract, shall be liable for all damages either
